Decision:

to designate, on an interim basis, Karen Iveson in her new joint role as Chief Finance Officer/Assistant Director Strategic Resources as the Council's Chief Finance Officer pursuant to s151 of the Local Government Act 1972 until such time as Council can consider a permanent designation.

Reason for Decision

This interim designation is made under paragraph 3.9.3 k (i) as an urgent matter affecting the functions of the Council in consultation with the Leader of Council and reflects the resolution of the Executive on 3rd March to recommend the same to Council, such decision having been released for implementation and not called in.

Alternative Options considered and rejected

Not to exercise urgency powers. However it is a statutory requirement that the Council designate a Chief Finance officer
