The following questions have been submitted by Councillor Mike Jordan:

1. The government have announced that councils will only be able to be members of a single LEP (Local Enterprise Partnership). Could I ask the Executive if they have decided which to remain a member of and, if so, the reason for their decision. I am referring to the Leeds LEP and the North Yorkshire, York and East Riding LEP.
2. Earlier this year, in Full Council, it was decided that at some point we would be providing free parking for the first hour in Selby. Can I ask when that is likely to occur?

The following questions have been submitted for the Leader by Councillor Mary McCartney:

1. Could you please give an update on the progress being made to introduce a Public Space Protection Order to stop all vehicles, including motor cycles, quad bikes, cars, vans and caravans from going on and parking on our parks, playing fields, sports fields and other public green spaces? The reaction from Parish Councils and residents show that they are supportive of the proposal.
2. Could you also say whether you are confident that North Yorkshire Police will get behind such a scheme and will be prepared to, along with SDC officers, enforce any such order?

9. Reports from the Executive (Pages 9 - 24)
