Decision
To award the contract for Property and project management support for Olympia Park Development.
Reason for Decision
The development of Olympia Park requires consultancy support for property advice and project management services that is predominantly focused on supporting the council to continue with the landowner negotiations and delivery of the whole site in accordance with the HIF grant.

Alternative Options considered and rejected

The Council proactively oversees the delivery of this strategic project but also requires external specialist support and expertise to deliver this major project. It therefore conducted a tender exercise using the Homes England Property and Professional services framework. This framework was specifically set up by Homes England to support such projects as Olympia Park.
