

Rejuvenation Process being carried out

Compressed air is used to extract all the sand out of the astroturf. It is then collected up and taken away in a skip. Fresh new sand is then put into the surface and bedded in.

Flooding on the court after heavy rain prior to the rejuvenation process

